

FUNDRAISING Checklist

Are you having trouble with your fundraising? Here at CFS, we know that fundraising can be difficult and that there are many contributing factors when it comes to promoting your cause or charity.

To help assist you, we have put together a helpful checklist for your fundraising efforts.

- Website – Make sure your website easily identifies what you do, and details how the donations will be used.
- Donation Forms – Your donation form should be no longer than one page, and really simple to fill out. Include a space where donors have the option to donate in someone else's name.
- Social Media Outreach – Social media posts should include hashtags, links to upcoming events, news articles and updates on your cause.
- Event Planning – First, set goals for your organization and event. Then, choose the right type of event that best aligns with your audience.
- Email List – “Sign Up for Updates” should stand out on all of the pages on your website.
- Event Invites – Make your RSVP or registration on your event invites really easy to fill out, and include a way for someone to make a donation if they can't attend.
- Email Marketing – Your subject line should entice readers to open the email and continue reading. Make sure you have permission to email everyone on your contact list.
- Event Marketing – Send out flyers or postcards and emails to previous attendees about upcoming events.
- Thanking Donors – Send a personalized “thank you” immediately upon receiving a donation.
- Event Follow-up – Follow up with donors and sponsors, to provide an update on how their gift is making a difference.
